

¶228.2b(5) A written complaint or grievance may be filed against a professing member by serving the complaint or grievance on the professing member, the pastor of the professing member and the district superintendent of the professing member.